

Moments That Became Memories

By Billy Coleman Jones

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 170 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. Laughter changes our brain chemistries and sometimes gives us a more optimistic view of our world and our circumstances. This book is a perfect coffee table prescription for the stressful day and time in which we live, in that it provides us laughter, tears, and other expressions of sentiment. I have known Billy since our high school years. I know him to be an honorable man of unusually high integrity, and have no doubt that every detail is honest and without exaggeration. Most importantly, I love the way that Billy intermingles the Word of our Father God with his stories. This book is great. Linda B. Giles, M. Ed. Licensed Professional Counselor Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist National Certified Counselor Moments that Became Memories is a wonderful treasure house filled with songs, poems, and stories that allow readers to not only see a glimpse of relationships that molded one man, but also the opportunity to reflect upon their own experiences in life. Billy C. Jones writes about births, deaths, family, friends, fishing, and singing in such a compelling way, readers will either re-live their own similar...
