Not illustrated. 1918 Excerpt: .but this accident was not reported to this office until 10 days thereafter. The medical attention required by the veterans during the reunion proper was inconsequential, the weather being perfect, three days balmy and the last day cool. No accident of a serious nature occurred at the camp. The field hospital was fairly busy, and served its purpose admirably and, in connection with the motor ambulance company, cared for a number of veterans overcome by fatigue and suffering from minor ailments. There were only two cases of drunkenness and these of men upon arrival, who were immediately sent to the field hospital and by the next morning had fully recovered from the convivialty of their trip. It may here be mentioned that at my request, through the Vicksburg City Commission, the Louisiana liquor dealers across the Mississippi within accessible distance kindly agreed to sell no bottled goods from the day before the reunion until its close. This precaution, together with virtual absence of illicit liquor in that section, eliminated the possibility of a few in the big tents disturbing many. One old fellow of about 80 took personal exception to this regulation, but otherwise it met general approval and gave satisfactory results. The medical and sanitary arrangements were under Maj. John T. Sprague, Medical Reserve Corps, whose attention to details and consideration of all matters of this character contributing to the safety and comfort of the veterans gave fine results and deserve my especial commendation. 10....
