I was a successful minister and founding pastor of a church that grew from zero to three hundred and it wasn't enough. I was a successful businessman earning a six-figure income with a bright future and it wasn't enough. I had a gorgeous wife who loved me, two beautiful boys, and the perfect home. But I almost threw it all away-because it wasn't enough. Something was still missing! I was missing the one thing all strong people need to survive: Those at the top must seek out and help those at the bottom. This is The Main Thing. This is our mission. Will you take your place next to Jesus in serving the least among us?.
