It is an amusing coincidence, is it not, that both of our greatest ambitions rest upon the fates of the heirs of terrible tyrants? Jessica Oaklanda, Architect of Sorcery Bay The High Kingdom of Faiden fell to a powerful dark lord. Eight hundred years later his reign continues unchallenged, yet hope is not lost. A series of events has been set in motion to end the era of darkness and bring about great change on the world of Midia. Rebellion stirs in the human territories, where a strange fae was left on the doorstep of General Greywolf. Kenneth grew up in a city where he was outcast, but he was shaped by the general and by tragedy into a fierce weapon of leadership. A new-born shadow master with the wings of a demon was abandoned at a human orphanage. Shunned and tormented by the other children, Ferremor somehow grew to be a peaceable and kind young man. Even he does not know the terrible heritage that awaits him. In the bleak Northern Mountains, an aging calbrin wizard...
