J8 2007r OCLC Number: (OCoLC)156978291 Subject: Courthouses -- Security measures -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 15 Federal Prison System. Title II would make it a separate crime to knowingly file a false claim against a Federal judge, law enforcement officer, or family member on account of performance of duties. It also would make it a crime to make restricted information about Federal judges, jurors, paid informants, witnesses, court and public safety officers, or their families publicly available. Under current law, such actions may be prosecuted under other Federal statutes in certain cases. Title II also would increase the maximum sentences for manslaughter without malice, as well as certain existing crimes against witnesses, victims, public officials, and informants. CBO estimates that the longer prison sentences required under the bill would not have a significant impact on prison populations and thus would not impose any significant costs over the 2008 - 2012 period. Other Provisions Affecting Federal Judges. Section 102 would permanently extend provisions which prevent public access to certain financial information, if such disclosure could endanger a Federal judge or a family member. Under current law, those provisions are set to expire at the end of 2009. According to the AOUSC, the agency exercises this authority rarely and CBO estimates that any additional reporting requirements would therefore be minimal and would have no significant cost. In addition, section 502 would direct AOUSC to pay for increases in the cost of Federal Employees Group Life Insurance (FEGLI) implemented by the Office of Personnel Management after April 1999 for magistrates and territorial district court judges. Such payments are...
