This scheme was contrived by the Lady, and highly relished by Jones, who was indeed glad to have a prospect of seeing his Sophia at any rate; and the Lady herself was not a little pleased with the imposition on Sophia, which Jones, she thought, could not possibly discover to her for his own fake. The next day was appointed for the first visit and then, after proper ceremonials, the Lady Bellaston returned home. C H A P. 1 1 1. . Containing various Matters. JONES was no sooner alone, than he eagerly broke open his letter, and read as follows. Sir, it is impossible to express what I have suffered since you left this house; and as I have reason to think you intend coming here again, I have sent Honor, though so late at night, as she tells me she knows your lodgings, to prevent you. I charge you, by all the regard you have for me, not to think of visiting here; for it will certainly be discovered; nay, I almost doubt from some things which have dropt from her, Ladyship, that she is not already without some suspicion. Something favorable perhaps may happen; we must wait with patience; but I once more entreat you, if you have any concern for my ease, do not think of returning hither. This letter administered the same kind of consolation to poor Jones, which Job formerly received from his friends. Besides...
