PORT NORFOLK: A REVITALIZATION (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Port Norfolk: A Revitalization Port Norfolk is located in the Neponset section of Dorchester, about six miles south of downtown Boston. It is an isolated neighborhood of about 1,000 people, almost completely surrounded by the Southeast Expressway to the west and the mouth of the Neponset River to the north and east. Its 250-odd houses are almost all one and two family structures. Most of them were built before the turn of the century. Collectively, they display the full variety of 19th century architectural styles. The residential center of the neighborhood is surrounded by industrial and commercial uses along the waterfront. The industries include an ice cream manufacturing plant, a small handbag factory, a concrete mixing machinery plant, and a paper waste disposal company, among the commercial uses are a seafood restaurant, marina, a yacht club, and a boat rental facility. These various uses cut off the residential area almost completely from the water. As late as 1845, Port Norfolk was a pine covered hill surrounded by marshland and used for pasturage. It was not until the Old Colony Railroad built its track across the area to connect Quincy and Boston that any development began. Houses were built and industry - primarily ship builders and lumber yards - took advantage of the location on the waterfront of the Neponset River. The area prospered, churches were built and retail stores opened. As time passed, the Old Colony Railroad shut down, the businesses closed, and the industry on the waterfront changed. Construction of the Southeast Expressway, in the mid-1950 s, cut off Port Norfolk from the rest of Dorchester. The age of the automobile, suburban living,...
