One was telling of a trip he had just taken to the great hinterland of Ontario. The narrator was enthusiastic. He described a beautiful lake, seventy-five miles long with immense wooded shores, now rising 500 feet sheer from the water, now receding gradually and always inspiring, grand, majestic. He told of navigable streams winding between picturesque banks; of twentieth century highways through dismal but interesting forests; thriving villages, virile in their infancy; of a hard-working population turning a land of promise into a land of realization. He dilated upon an oxonized, lung expanding, exhilarating air and the velvety breeze from the south - Hiawatha s Shanondasee. Grand! exclaimed the listener, that s just the trip for the Press Association to take. There s a meeting of the Executive, and I will tell them about it. It was President Pettypiece who spoke, and the one who had described Temiskaming...
