Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Miss Passport mini three-day unforgettable vacation itinerary (Charlotte North Carolina) If you find yourself in need of a little adventure, but had no idea where you should go find the sort of adventure where you can watch NBA basketball, football Lacrosse and then the wine and dine at some of the finest restaurants in North America, if not the world, as well as experience some old world architecture and charm, while at the same time visiting a world-class aviation Museum and historic Civil War sites. Then maybe Charlotte North Carolina is where you should go. This elegant southern city has everything anyone could desire in a vacation spot show that North Carolina is a wonderful city for exploring Southern culture and US national history from the Revolution to the Civil War and aviation and then she allows you to shift gears to basketball, football or baseball to fill the needs of any discerning sports fan, and then transition from a raucous stadium to an elegant night on the town with the love of your life all of these things are within walking distance of one another in Charlotte. You can be cocooned in five-star luxury, while staying at the Ballantyne Hotel, which will make an excellent base camp for your expedition into Charlotte, you will have everything you need to fortify you for your adventure from the fluffiest bathrobe you have ever seen to the most exquisite and sleep inducing mattress (it will be like sleeping on a cloud). Once you have settled in you can begin your exploration by visiting downtown Charleston and taking in some of the historic architecture. On the prerevolutionary war...
